

C-Band Hearing and FCC TMUS/S Order: What Did and Did Not Happen. Plus Quick Thoughts on US/China 5G Competition and Elliot's Meetings with AT&T

By Blair Levin | October 20, 2019

In this weekend update we review the Senate hearing on the C-Band, which did not cause us to change our projections but did raise questions about details, timing, a Trump Wildcard, and above all, where is the actual plan, as none has yet been filed that meet the FCC objectives. Then we invoke Zeno's Paradox to explain why, though all the FCC Commissioners have voted, we may not see the order approving the TMUS/S deal for another few weeks. We close with quick updates on 5G international competition and the ongoing discussions between Elliot and AT&T.
